Who is counted in the 2011 Census?

The Housing Census will enumerate all buildings, housing units, households, commercial and industrial establishments, hotels and boarding houses as well as fruit trees of bearing age on residential premises.

The Population Census will enumerate all persons present on census night in all households and communal establishments, as well as usual residents who are away on census night.

Housing and population enumerations will be conducted in the islands of Mauritius, Rodrigues and Agalega.