

FOREWORD

Mauritius, being a member of the International Labour Organisation (ILO), has an obligation under Article 22 of the ILO Constitution to submit regular reports on the application of Conventions which have been ratified by the country.

As at date, out of 50 Conventions ratified by Mauritius, 38 are in force, 12 Conventions have been denounced, none have been ratified in the past 12 months. The hereunder indicators are required by the ILO with regard to the respective ratified Conventions.

This is the sixth issue of the Indicators on International Labour Organisation (ILO) pertaining to the years 2013 and 2014 as required by the Ministry of Labour, Industrial Relations & Employment and Training.

The cooperation of all organisations which have provided information for the preparation of this publication is gratefully acknowledged.

ILO Member States have two main obligations (Constitution) to fulfill:

- (1) Submit instruments, i.e. Conventions or/and Recommendations, adopted by the ILC to the Competent Authority (National Assembly for Mauritius).
- (2) Report on ratified and unratified Conventions & on Recommendations.

The MLIRE is the focal point for ILO matters and the ILO unit of the Ministry is responsible for the drafting of all reports that have to be made to the ILO.

Time limit for reporting:

(1) Ratified Conventions

Reports on ratified Conventions are generally submitted according to a reporting schedule: - every three years for the 8 fundamental and priority Conventions and every five years for the others. To-date, Mauritius has ratified some 50 ILO Conventions including the 8 fundamental ones, 2 Governance Conventions and 40 Technical conventions. Out of 50 Conventions ratified by Mauritius, 38 are in force, 12 Conventions having been denounced and none having been ratified in the past 12 months.

Such reports are requested by the ILO around the month of April and are expected to reach the ILO by 01 September each year at latest.

(2) Unratified Conventions & Recommendations

These reports are also requested on a yearly basis and the request is made usually around August/September each year. Requested reports are to reach the ILO by end of February of the next year at latest.

(3) Submission of adopted instruments to the National Assembly

For the submission exercise as well, there is a time limit. In such cases, tabling of adopted instruments should be effected within one year from the closing of the Conference.
