

Road Transport and Road Accident Statistics (January - June 1996)

1.1 Vehicles registered as at June 1996.

As at end of June 1996, there were about 195,600 vehicles registered at the National Transport Authority (NTA), which represents an increase of around 4,700 or 2.5% over December 1995.

Table 1.1 on the composition of the fleet by type of vehicles shows that about 51% or 100,000 were motor cycles, 34% or 67,500 were passenger cars, and the remaining 15% comprised vans (11,100), lorries (8,900), buses (2,400) and other vehicles (6,000).

1.2 Net addition between January and June 1996

Between January and June 1996, some 6,800 vehicles were registered, of which 4,300 were new, 1,300 used imported and 1,200 re-registered. As during the same period around 2,100 vehicles were put off the road, the net addition works out to about 4,700. This figure compares with 5,150 for the corresponding six months of last year, indicating a drop of around 9% in net additions.

1.3 Passenger cars

During the first six months of 1996, the fleet of passenger cars was renewed by around 2,100 or 3% with 1,363 new and 1,169 second hand. During the same period some 800 were put off the road, which brought the fleet size of passenger cars to 67,500. The number of new and second hand cars registered in the corresponding period of 1995 are 1,467 and 745 respectively.

2.1 Road accidents

Data on road accidents for the period January to June 1996 shows a decline of 2.2% in the number of accidents: 7,165 cases were reported at the police stations against 7,325 in the corresponding period of 1995. Consequently, the rate of accidents per 1,000 registered motor vehicles dropped to 76 from 87 in 1995 (Table 2.1 refers).

2.2 Casualties

During the first semester, the total number of casualties also dropped by around 11% to 1,676 compared to 1,889 for the same period of last year. Of these, 80 were fatal, 92, seriously injured and the remaining 1,504, slightly injured. Decreases of about 10 % and 32 % are noted in "fatal", and "seriously injured" respectively.

As shown in Table 2.4, riders of motor cycle and pedestrians accounted for 33 % and 30 % of the casualties respectively, followed by passengers, 20%.

2.3 Vehicles involved in accidents

The number of vehicles involved in accidents has remained more or less the same as that for the first semester of 1996, that is, at around 12,800. Passenger cars including taxis comprised 6,891 or 54 % of the vehicles involved, whilst two-wheeler motor vehicles represented 17 %, goods vehicles, 19 %, and buses about 8 % (Table 2.3).

2.4 Hit and run cases

The number of hit and run cases recorded by police stations during the first semester of 1996 stood at 150, of which 117 were accidents involving vehicles only and the remaining, vehicles and pedestrians.
